Dear _____,

On behalf of the women we serve, thank you for your generous gift. MSC uses unique mentoring, advocacy, tools and training services to help clients living in poverty or at-risk circumstances stabilize their lives and meet with life success. By helping these women remarket themselves as credible, professional, and reliable job candidates, we can directly increase their chances of becoming self-sufficient.

Since 1998, MSC has helped thousands of women move past obstacles such as homelessness and domestic violence, and into better-paying jobs with benefits. By providing these life-changing services, they are able to improve their economic standing and provide brighter lives for their children.

Warmest and sincerest thanks and appreciation!

Sandy Keller

Founder / Executive Director
